Seminar

Integrated law enforcement efforts to combat illegal logging:

Using anti-corruption and anti–money laundering instruments in the forestry sector

Jakarta, June 29th 2010

List of the speakers

	Agenda	Speaker	Affiliation
	Opening address by Center for International Forestry Research (CIFOR)	Dr. Patrice Levang -	Director of Forests and Livelihood Program CIFOR
	Opening remarks by the Corruption Eradication Commission of Indonesia (KPK)	Mr. Mochammad Jasin	Vice chairman The Corruption Eradication Commission of Indonesia (KPK)
Session 1. Corruption and the issues of law enforcement in the forestry sector
	The challenges in enforcing Law 41/1999	Mr. Hamzah Tadja, SH, MH.	Attorney General for General Criminal Prosecutions (Jampidum) Office of the Attorney General
	The challenges of combating illegal logging in Indonesia	Kombes Pol Drs. Eddy Moestafa	Head Unit IV, Directorate of Special Criminal Investigation (Dir V Tipiter) Indonesian Police (Mabes Polri)
	Contemporary forest crimes	Mr. Susanto Kurniawan	Coordinator Forest Rescue Network of Riau Province (Jikalahari)
	Corruption modes in the forestry business	Mr. Ade Rahardja	Deputy of Repression The Corruption Eradication Commission of Indonesia (KPK)
Session 2. Integrated law enforcement to confront forest criminals
	Government's efforts in forest law enforcement to halt illegal logging and associated crimes	Mr. M. Awriya Ibrahim, M.Sc	Director of forest protection and investigation Directorate of Forest Conservation and Nature Protection (PHKA) - Ministry of Forestry

	The use of money laundering instruments to combat forest-related crimes	Prof. Gunadi Syamsuri	Deputy head of PPATK on Research and Analysis Indonesian Financial Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (INTRAC/PPATK)
	Guideline on Integrated Law Enforcement Approach (ILEA) in the forestry sector	Dr. Topo Santoso	CIFOR
	Combating corruption in the courts to stop illegal logging and forest-related crimes	Mr. Mas Ahmad Santosa	Indonesian Task Forces to combat Judicial Mafia (SATGAS)